6. This is a new module. For the first couple of days, there will be only revision classes. We want to give you and your kids some time to learn the operating methodology of the new module, before we begin the regular classes. For technical clarifications and support, call Mr Dinesh at: 9080539699. Please be aware that there might be some hiccups initially. It will take a few days before they are cleared and everything settles down to a nice rhythm. Therefore, if you are facing issues in the beginning, do not panic. Please, be patient. We will sort them all out.
